

The United States Official Investigation of baking powder, made under authority of Congress by the Chemical Division of the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., recently completed, shows the Royal Baking Powder to be a cream of tarter powder of the highest quality, pure and wholesome, and superior to all others in strength, leavening power, and general usefulness.

THE POTTSSES.

Their Strange Story of the Killing.

Judge Bigelow and Mr. Dawley of Elko are now in the city making further efforts to save the Pottes of Carlin from hanging. They have a strong feeling in common with many people of Elko, that the Pottes may be innocent. The accused still stick to their original story of the killing which is as follows:

The deceased Faucett was a frequent visitor at the house of the Pottes at Carlin, and was regarded by them as a friend. One day Mrs. Potts discovered him in a barn attempting to outrage her little daughter. Upon being discovered and upbraided by the mother, Faucett attacked the latter, choked her and threatened to kill her unless she promised not to expose him. To save her life she made the promise, which she kept, not even informing her husband of the affair. Shortly afterwards, however, as she was about leaving for California, she wrote a letter to the Constable at Carlin informing him of Faucett's crime and demanding his arrest. This letter was discovered by her husband before her departure and Faucett coming to the house that evening, a violent scene occurred. Faucett offered a bill of sale of the team to settle the matter. This the husband refused and threatened to go and inform the people of Carlin of Faucett's crime and have him lynched. Just as Potts was leaving the house, Faucett, in a fit of desperation, drew a pistol and shot him dead. The suicide occurring in their house, they, fearful of being accused of the crime, concealed the body, which afterward in the absence of his wife, Potts cut up and buried in his cellar, where it was afterwards found. This is the story of the condemned couple, which, though seemingly improbable, has never been controverted by any direct testimony or facts. The pair sometime afterward left for Wyoming where they were arrested upon the discovery of the body. The cause attributed for the murder was robbery, but as the property of Faucett was trifling in value and as Potts was receiving liberal wages as master mechanic at Carlin, Mr. Dawley is satisfied that if a murder was committed it was for another purpose than gain. The officer is very earnest in his purpose and made the trip to this city at his own expense to save the lives of two persons of whose guilt he entertains the gravest doubts.

Good Boy Stokes.—A missionary in Africa who was forwarded to that place to Christianize the heathen, got his primitive fins into a game, and made a fine clear-up. He backed an old chief around Mwanga in a campaign by giving him $3,000 worth of gunpowder, and then prayed to the God of battle for his man. The old chief cleaned out his adversaries and paid his clerical friend in ivory. The parson cleared about $100,000. It is a common thing to say that the church sends all its d—fools as missionaries to Africa but here is a man whose skill as a financier entitles him to walk in high Wall Street circles. It is pleasing to know that occasionally a preacher gets loose in Africa who is not a natural born idiot.

INDIANS COUNTED IN.—Indians are to be counted in the census. Page 10 of "Instructions to Enumerators" has the following, as to Indians living off of reservations: "Indians not in tribal relations, whether full-bloods or half-breeds, who are found mingled with the white population, residing in white families, engaged as servants or laborers, or living in huts or wigwams on the outskirts of towns or settlements, are to be regarded as a part of the ordinary population and are to be embraced in the enumeration."

Mrs. Maude Stine has just received another new stock of millinery which will be disposed of at very low prices. Children's leg-horn and fancy straw hats a specialty. Ladies wanting stylish goods should call. m25

COAST NEWS.

Twenty-four Chinamen were recently captured in Arizona, having crossed the line from Guaymas and taken to Tucson. Four boys were in the party.

The trial of Constable H. L. Fick of Auburn, indicted at Stockton for kidnapping the wife of Go Sam, a Chinese merchant, in March last, has begun at the latter place.

The Mexican authorities at Magdalena, Sonora, refuse to allow the return of American cattle which stray in Mexico, and have ordered all American cattle hereafter found across the line to be taken up and sold.

The back seat of a wagon containing a family of Swedes, named Anderson from Sacramento, gave way at the Downey House, sixteen miles west of Grass Valley Sunday and two women and two children were thrown out. One infant was killed, and both the women and the other child injured.

ED. APPEAL:—I notice some "funny" business in last night's Evening Tribune about suggesting "Pat Quinn" as referee in the coming foot race. I will state, that I am ready to run Mr. Dobbins against any man on the Pacific Coast for any sum, and that anybody in this county, can be stake holder—barring, of course the Nevada Evening Tribune.

I am very truly yours,
JACK FURLONG.

THE PISCHE RAILROAD.—The Pische Record says: In all probability next Christmas will witness the completion of the extension of of the Utah Central Railroad to a point three miles north of town, in the Flat. The question of whether the line will build here or not is affirmatively settled, and two graders' camps are now located and at work this side of Dutch Flat.

NEW ORLEANS LOTTERY.—The New Orleans Delta says: From the refusal of the lottery to obey the law and exhibit a statement of its liabilities when called on, we judge that it does not desire to give too much prominence to the fact that it does a $28,000,000 a year business on less than $28,000 of assets.

WILL BE A BANGER.—The patriots of Millerville propose to have their Fourth of July celebration about the liveliest that that section has witnessed for years. With so many pretty girls, good butter-milk and red hot patriotism, there is no danger of any decay of Americanism on the East Fork of the Carson.

OPERA HOUSE.—"Pair of Jacks" drew a fair house and kept the audience in a howl. The singing was of unusual merit. Miss Johnson's banjo playing was something extraordinary.

K. OF P.—The Knights of Pythias will hold their annual convention in this city today. There will be a banquet at Castle Hall this evening.

LOST.—Since June 3rd, a white horse, has had a blister on his right shoulder which is now a small bump, the skin being black; two cuts about six inches long on the inside of the forelegs near the breast and a little stiff in gait. Having owned him but a short time, these are the only brands by which I can identify him, he is supposed to have been lost. Whoever will bring him to Mr. Frank Langevin will receive $5. j10
